JUST A GIRL.

She's a girl—of course, that's plenty
For a quiet man to know;
That she's beautiful and twenty
Is a side affair, and so
I keep mum and raise my praises
To Dame Fortune's wish and swirl
That I've won among her mazes
Just a girl.

She's a girl—I sometimes doubt if
She has read her Gibbon through,
but I'd not be much put out if
His good name she never knew.
She's conformed from many simples—
Hearty—braids enough to curl—
Smiles—and principally dimples—
Just a girl.

She's a girl—dull people tell me
My mistake has been immense;
Old and wise ones would compel me
To a wife with common sense.
Rosie! Let her common sense come after,
In this most-conscious while:
I would live for love and laughter—
And a girl.

MRS. E. H. DUNAKIN

WRITES A LETTER ABOUT VINOL.

How Pale Women May Get Strength, Rich, Red Blood and the Bloom of Health in Their Faces.

A pale, bloodless face indicates trouble; it is a sign of weakness, and as we see so many right here in Maysville the following letter will interest many of our readers.

Mrs. E. H. Dunakin, State Chairman of Correspondence, Woman Literary Union of Pennsylvania, writes: "I suffered for over a year with general debility and weakness; I had severe backaches, headaches, and was pale and nervous. My physician prescribed different remedies, but they did not seem to help me at all. A club associate recommended Vinol, as it had cured her of a severe stomach trouble. I tried it, and soon felt greatly improved, and after taking four bottles I can say I am free from all my troubles, and it has made me well once more. Several of my friends are using it with beneficial results for lung and stomach troubles and

John F. Mills has been elected Fire Chief of Flemingsburg.

The family of Rev. M. A. Bunker will arrive this afternoon to take up their residence in this city.

Mr. William D. Cochran rested well last night and is improving, much to the gratification of his friends.

Mr. Leon Neal and sister came up yesterday from Augusta to attend the social hop at Washington Hall last night.

Manager Charles Scott of the Lexington Opera-house has ordered five additional exits for his playhouse as a result of the Chicago Iroquois Theater disaster.

During the year 1903 County Clerk Clarence Wood issued from his office 177 marriage licenses. How many will sip from a cup of joy or sorrow the future will unfold.

Benny and Gladys Benedict, whose parents perished in a fire which destroyed their home in Ashland a few weeks ago, have been placed in the Masonic Home at Louisville.

Mrs. F. W. Weber committed suicide at Ashland Monday by drinking carbolic acid. She had been in poor health for some months, and last Saturday was adjudged insane.

A handsome line of Cut Glass and Sterling Silver Pieces at a great bargain at Murphy's the Jeweler. With every $1 cash purchase you get a ticket on the handsome Diamond Ring.

In other cities the police are busily engaged these blizzard days in testing the fire plugs and seeing that they are all right and in good condition. Are the police of this city doing that? Not on your life; it's too cold and they haven't time anyway.

Our genial and urbane County Court Clerk Clarence L. Wood and his assistant, Mr. John Pollitt, have been kept on the hustle for the past week, but they were equal to the task and dispensed an unlimited amount of clerical work with chained lightning rapidity and accuracy.

Mr. L. M. Lane arrived last night from Indianapolis with the remains of his infant granddaughter. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. B. K. Muse of West Third street, this afternoon at 1:30. The interment will be on the family lot in the Maysville Cemetery.

One of the busy places in the city during the holidays was the Postoffice. During the entire week the force was kept on the move from early to late in order to handle the immense quantity of matter passing through the office. In December the receipts from stamps and envelopes amounted to $1,452.38; number of packages registered, 27; number of packages received for local delivery, 578. During Christmas week there were 512 registers in transit; 10 money orders amounting to $637.05 and 10 money orders amounting to $10.50; 10 first-class pouches were sent and 150 pouches of mail handled. Few offices or better business.

Mrs. E. H. DUNAKIN.

to restore lost strength."

Mr. J. C. Pecor, our well known druggist, says there is absolutely no need for people to drag around weak, pale, nervous, run-down and de-vitalized, for he guarantees that Vinol will in a natural manner build up the weak, give strength to the aged, restore color to pale faces, cure stomach trouble, nervousness, hard colds, hacking coughs and make rich, red blood. Containing as it does all the vitalizing principles of cod liver oil, without any oil to upset the stomach, Vinol is the most wonderful rebuilding of health and strength known to medicine; it is not a patent medicine, and is absolutely free from all harmful drugs.

If it fails to give satisfaction money is refunded without question, and it will pay every weak or ailing person in Maysville to try it on our guarantee. J. C. Pecor.

MISS JULIA M. STONE

Retires As Teacher in Public Schools Because of Ill Health

The retirement of Miss Julia M. Stone as teacher of drawing and the language, in the Public Schools of the city is learned with much regret by her many friends.

The action of Miss Stone is caused by ill health; and she will shortly return to her home in Westfield, N. Y.

Miss Stone has been connected with the Public Schools for nearly twelve years, coming to Flemingsburg originally to take a position in Mayfield School Seminary.

Her work in this city has been marked with unusual success, and that her pupils progressed under her efficient instruction was manifested by the splendid exhibition of their work at the end of each school year.

She was one of the best known teachers in the schools and her co-workers specially regret the necessity of her giving up her work among them.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

At Hamilton, O., Circuit Judges Giffen, Swing and Jelke yesterday morning granted Alfred A. Knapp, the wife-strangler, a new trial. It was held the state failed to prove that Mrs. Knapp was choked to death as charged in the indictment; that there was error in admitting all of Knapp's confessions to the five murders in the charge to the Jury, and that the Court erred when it said that no sane man would make such confessions.

Every Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Warranted.

We guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

John M. Clift Files Petition in Bankruptcy in Federal Court.

John M. Clift, a farmer of the Mayslick neighborhood, yesterday filed a petition in bankruptcy in the Federal Court at Covington.

He places his liabilities at $8,422.50 and his assets at $1,197.

The State National Bank is his heaviest creditor, which he owes $5,600 on notes with W. E. Clift and Stanton Clift as sureties.

He also owes Minnie Morrissey $500 on a note, and the balance of his obligations are made up of lesser amounts, owing chiefly to the merchants of Maysville.

OLD MAYSVILLE MAN

Though Happy in West Virginia, He Longs For Former Home

Colonel George M. Thompson, formerly of Maysville but now Proprietor of The New Raleigh Hotel located at Elizabeth, W. Va., writes to THE LEDGER as follows—

ELIZABETH, W. Va., January 4th, 1904.

Thomas A. Davis, Maysville, Ky.—Friend Tom: Find inclosed check for one more year subscription of your paper. It seems every day I get your paper like a letter from home. It is thirty-five years today since George Wilson, the old printer, introduced me to you. My life since then has been a diversified one, but I am happier and more contented than I ever was in my life. If I were so situated that I could spend the balance of my time in old Maysville my ambition would be gratified. Respectfully,

GEORGE M. THOMPSON.

UTH UNVARNISHED!

IT'S ABOUT DRESS GOODS!

I'll be honest---we want you to buy them because it will help business, not only now but in the future. When you think of Goods months hence, if you buy now, you're sure to come back where you secured such values. We want you to buy---no anthropology about it, just a plain mercantile proposition. Prices reveal our anxiety. No half way measures about these figures, they are rock bottom prices that mean money saved to you. Don't be content to read, come, see, compare.

50c was 89c yd. Bottle green or black covert, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ yards wide--cuts to splendid advantage without any waste.
 38c was 59c yd. All wool zibeline mixtures. Blue or gray dashed with white. Colors well blended, finish excellent.
 89c was $1.25 yd. Gray, blue or brown mixtures with white yarn nubs dotting the surface irregularly. New and stylish.
 38c was 59c yd. Kersey mixtures of navy with faint glints of white. Good service in every thread.
 50c was 75c yd. Exquisite shades of brown, blue, gray, green and red zibeline slightly flecked with silver hairs. Full 40 in wide. Equally effective in coat suits or costumes.
 50c was $1 yd. Handsome plaids for children's frocks. Light and dark colors, large and medium designs.
 25c was 50c yd. Ladies' cloth, all wool. Rose, castor, gray. Good and good looking.

NECKWEAR.

For men a few tied Ascots and four-in-hands at half price. And string ties at like reductions. 50c values 25c, 25c values

The stock holds an important place in a woman's toilet now, notwithstanding the onslaught of Christmas buying our stock speaks tensive readiness to please all tastes. Turnovers, bows, ruching ocks, ties, rosettes and top collars. Figures will mean so little, except in conjunction with the goods, as detailed description is impossible in such "an embarrassment of riches," we await your coming to quote prices.

VEILS PAY THE PENALTY.

Of lingering here after time. All smart, new and counter parts of the veils now showing for spring. Black, white, blue, brown, Plain, dotted, dashed. All sorts of edge finish. 35c instead of 50c.

NIGHTSHIRTS.

More of the 50c Night Shirts that make the usual garment at that price look as insignificant as a cold pancake. These are big generous "nighties" made of undressed Wamsutta muslin. Good width and length. Pleat, collar, cuffs and pocket neatly embroidered in colored silk. Pearl buttons, felled seams, double collar and cuffs.

LACE COLLARS—HALF PRICE.

Nothing freshens up an old gown or beautifies a new more than a lace collar or bertha, many designs, can be worn either way. Handmade patterns, these beautifully made in France and Germany. Normal ratings are \$1 $\frac{1}{4}$, \$2, \$2 $\frac{1}{2}$, \$3, \$4, \$5, \$7 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Prices now 75c, \$1, \$1.25, \$1 $\frac{1}{4}$, \$2, \$2 $\frac{1}{2}$, \$3.75.

\$1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ELECTRIC SCARF PINS \$1

Something "to light one on the tedious way" and to incidentally startle one's friends in dark places. A push on the button and a harmless scarf pin glows into a flash light. You'll get more than a dollar's worth of fun out of it and combine use with ornament as well.

GOLF VESTS.

Warm delights for this frosty weather. They make a very light coat wearable in the coldest weather. Three colors, green, red, black. And such drastic price cutting! Why these handsome vests blithely acknowledge they have descended from the aristocratic height of $1 to the plebian depth of 25c.

Still Some

\$8 $\frac{1}{2}$ Suits.

There is still a chance for some women to own a new suit and have \$6 $\frac{1}{2}$ more in their purse than they had any reason to expect. \$8 $\frac{1}{2}$ buys a suit that a week ago would have cost \$15. And that is good store keeping. Each season since we became absolute leaders in ready-made suits we've lost more just this way rather than carry one garment over to another season and have any but the newest styles to show our customers. It's the price of leadership—a loss we take cheerfully because it is necessary if we are to be different from—and better than—other stores.

HOSIERY FOR EVERYBODY.

It's a long time yet to the season of light weight in hosiery. Here are five items in stockings for this weather, that ought to interest everybody.

No. 1. Children's ribbed stockings dyed with eternal black, excellent weight, sizes 6 to 9 $\frac{1}{2}$, 19c formerly 25c.

No. 2. Children's ribbed black stockings, well made, durable, elastic. Nearly all sizes. 19c pair now 15c or two pairs for 25c.

No. 3. Children's odd sizes in warm, black, cashmere and in black fleece lined stockings, 19c formerly 25c.

No. 4. Men's black, and tan half hose in reasonable weight, soles, heels and toes re-inforced. 15c formerly 19c.

No. 5. Women's silk plated $1 stockings now 89c. Fine yet durable, seaming done by hand, spliced selavage, double heels and toes.
